Details for The Project for Improving Sanitation Environment of Toga District School

1. Basis for Implementing the Project

Since 1987, Toga District School has endured many challenges such as lack of proper sanitation and an adequate ablution facility for the students and teachers. In addition, not only was the old ablution crowded with students all the time, its condition kept deteriorating until it became non-compliant with the Occupational Health and Safety standards in Fiji.

For that reason, the Government of Japan funded the construction of a new 7-pan ablution facility. This facility will improve the health and sanitation of the school and its students.
